Winner—B. c. by Ben Strome—May Howard (trained by D. Carter).
Went to post at 3:00. At post 2 minutes. Start poor. Won easily; second driving. Ben Howard broke fast and showed the most speed throughout and Walsh picked his going in the middle of the track and stayed there to the finish. The colt was tiring at the end, but Walsh outrode the others and put up a good whipping finish. Alado ran in the deep going next to the rail all the way and Burton could not help him any in the final drive. Nuptial finished fast and would have been second in a few more strides. Jove is rousing to, was at home in the going, was a contender all the way and hung on well at the end. Lord Advocate needs a stronger rider. Rough Rider received a poor start. Breaker ran a bad race.

Scratched—37966 Provost, 102; 38072 Trapezist, 101; 38092 Harrison, 99; 38108 True Blue, 97; 38092 Showman, 95; 37965 Cincinnati, 85.

Ben Howard, show, 4 to 5. Alado, show, 6 to 5. Nuptial, show, 2 to 1. Rough Rider, show, evens.

Time, 13, 38, 51.

Winner—Br. c. by Aloha—Eminence (trained by F. Rector).
Went to post at 3:30. At post 2 minutes. Start poor. Won easily; second the same. Peter Paul was best and in the going, but Burns could hardly keep him straight in the final furlong and he stumbled twice. Petunia finished with a rush next to the outside rail after having been outrun in the first part of the race. Spring was in next to the rail all the way and tired from the deep going. Reverberate got off poorly and an effort to get up weakened her. Duncan received a poor start.

Scratched—(38091) Oriza, 112; 38111 Vibrator, 110.

Peter Paul, show, out. Petunia, show, 1 to 3. Spring, show, 7 to 10.

Time, 2:58 1/2.

Winner—Br. c. by Lamplighter—Golden Reel (trained by J. McLaughlin).
Went to post at 4:00. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Gibson Light was the best in the going and was skillfully handled all the way. Mara kept him in the middle of the course and easily drew away in the stretch. Ben Battle ran a fine race for a mile and a quarter and was a sharp contender for that distance, but tired in the stretch. Willard J. fenced well, but was not up to the route and swerved badly all through the final furlong. Haversack could not keep up. Dick Hasse is a poor jumper.

Scratched—38038 Concertina, 132.

Overweights—Haversack, 2 pounds.

Gibson Light, show, out. Ben Battle, show, 1 to 3. Willard J., show, 4 to 5.

Winner—Ch. f. by Hastings—Glory (trained by E. H. Hanna).
Went to post at 4:25. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won driving; second easily. Haack rode a well judged race on the winner and that won for her. At home in the going, Gloriosa tried to race with Mrs. Frank Foster in the first part of the trip, but the latter had too much speed and Haack reserved his mount for a final effort, came fast in the final furlong and headed Mrs. Frank Foster when a sixteenth from home. She tired then and had to be hard ridden to hold her advantage. Mrs. Frank Foster was made too much use of on the turns. Redfern made his run too soon and the effort used her up, she having nothing left when Gloriosa challenged. Sir Christopher ran a good race for nearly five furlongs. Flying Buttress dislikes mud and is best on a hard fast track.

Scratched—38056 Directum, 117; 38108 Illyria, 108; 38054 Blue and Orange, 101; 38076 Shrine, 96.

Winner—Ch. f. by Atheling—Pilgrimage (trained by H. C. Schulz).
Went to post at 4:50. At post 4 minutes. Start fair. Won easily; second driving. At the weights Shrine outclassed her company and should have won more easily, but was sore and Redfern took no chances, whipping her all through the last furlong. Merriment made up a lot of ground and finished fast under a hustling ride and outgamed Midnight Chimes. The latter did not show as much early speed as usual. Pride of Galore ran well to the stretch, but quit when caught. Mystic Belle closed a big gap under a poor ride.

Scratched—38018 Elizabeth Moan, 107; 38094 Stella W., 106; 38018 Ithan, 99; (38075) Geisha Girl, 94; 38003 Athlana, 99.

Winner—B. h. by Knight of Ellerslie—Dearest (trained by C. Horton).
Went to post at 5:20. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Knight of the Garter got off flying, displayed a great flight of speed, but was all out and doing his best at the end. Benckart went wide on all the turns and made up ground in the stretch, but could not catch the leader. H. L. Coleman weakened in the final drive after performing well for seven furlongs. Dark Planet began slowly and did not seem able to extend himself in the going although it has heretofore been his strong suit.

Scratched—(38095) Sir Florian, 114; 38076 Tenagra, 101; 38093 McWilliams, 113; 38095 Goldsby, 113; 37646 Barbara Frietche, 104.

Winner—B. m. by Knight of Ellerslie—Dearest (trained by J. K. Hughes).
Went to post at 2:31. At post 6 minutes. Start fair. Won easily; second easily. Nearest was easily best. She was interfered with at the start and went around the leaders at the far turn, caught Daddy Bender tiring at the end and was going away in the last fifty yards. Daddy Bender was well ridden and had no mishaps, saved ground all the way and was under a hard drive in the stretch. Insolene was doing her best throughout. Little Duchess II showed much early speed, but tired as if short. Flaneur ran well to the stretch. Georgia Gardner made up ground in the last half.

Scratched—38222 Chappaqua, 107; 38114 Miss Hume, 100; 38114 Birdwood, 98.

Rankin was crowded out of it while rounding the first turn, but closed a big gap, went around his field at the turn into the homestretch and finished going fast. Kenova outgamed Scotch Plaid in the final drive. The latter was off well and had no mishaps.

Claude showed improvement in speed today and was well ridden. Daly got him off well in motion and rated him along in behind Judge Himes for the first five furlongs and went to the front without much effort while rounding the far turn and coming away in the stretch run, was only cantering at the end. Farmer Jim was outfooted in the first half, but closed a big gap and finished going fast. Rightful was hustled along from the start, but his weight seemed to anchor him. He did his best and had no mishaps. Judge Himes ran well to the stretch where he tired badly. Banter was under a drive from the start and did not seem to like the going.

Winner—Ch. h. by Ecuador—Planetta (trained by M. A. Stephenson).
Went to post at 2:13. At post 4 minutes. Start good for all but Maraschino. Won in a drive; second the same. Frank Pearce, suddenly improved, was always prominent and lucky and wore Carlee down in a long stretch drive. The latter forced the pace throughout and was tiring rapidly at the end. Dollie Wiethoff appeared like winning when a furlong out, but fell away in the final drive, tiring badly in the deep going next to the rail. Yellowstone was probably best, closed a big gap in the last half and was running faster than the leaders at the end. Windward was a prominent contender throughout and lost placing through a weak finish. Bernota was going fast at the finish after having made up much ground. Fairbury was sore and always outrun.

TENNESSEE DERBY WINNERS.

The Tennessee Derby was first contested in 1884. It was then and for the two succeeding years a dash of a mile and a half. It was discontinued in 1887, '88 and '89 and resumed in 1890 at the lesser distance of a mile and a furlong, at which it has since remained. It has been many times won by good horses. Joe Cotton, Jim Gray, Robespierre, Valleria, Calhoun, Berclair, Lieber Karl, May Hempstead and Abe Frank were all horses to be proud of. The tabulated history of the race is as follows:

INAUGURAL WEIGHTS.

Secretary John Hachmeister, of the St. Louis Fair Association, has allotted weights to the horses engaged in the Inaugural Handicap, which is always the star feature of the opening day at the Fair Grounds. His work has been skillfully done, and should be productive of a cracking good race. The conditions of the race and the assignment of weights is as follows:

The Inaugural—A handicap sweepstakes for three-year-olds and upward. Weights to be announced April 6th; $10 to accompany the nomination; $15 to be paid on acceptance of weights, which acceptance must be made by April 20th, and $50 additional to start; $1,500 added, of which $350 to second, $150 to third, the fourth to save its stake. A winner of a race after publication of weights the total value of which is $1,000 or more, to carry 5 pounds extra. Starters to be named through the entry box by 11 a. m., the day before the race, and all so named to be liable for the starting fee. One Mile.

EASTERN TURF TALK.

Concerning affairs of current interest to turfmen and patrons of racing in the eastern field the New York Sun of Monday says:

"Turfmen are agreed that the coming season will be the greatest in the history of American thoroughbred racing. The success of the meeting at Benning is already assured, yet that is only an appetizer preparatory to the sport on the metropolitan circuit. That the turf authorities in the east intend to deal severely with those who transgress is evident from the action of the stewards at Benning, who only last week suspended jockey Miles and referred his case to the Jockey Club. The boy's offense was a glaring ride on 'Father Bill' Daly's Carroll D., in conjunction with which it is common talk that a certain well-known bookmaker, whose sheets were examined by the stewards, won heavily on the colt's defeat. While Miles is likely to be practically ruled off there is no way in which to discipline the layer unless the Metropolitan Turf Association takes the matter in hand. Those who are conversant with the inside of this affair say the Metropolitan Turf Association should institute an investigation at once, and if the charges against the bookmaker under suspicion can be proved he should be expelled from membership without further delay.

"It can be shown that one of the members of this association connived with a jockey to pull a favorite the consensus of opinion is that he should be banished for the sake of the reputation of the Metropolitan Turf Association and the good of the turf. At Benning the story of the Carroll D. race is common property. The name of the bookmaker charged with complicity in the affair is on the wagging tongue of scandal. There appears to be a general demand for an investigation by the Governing Committee of the 'Mets' before the matter goes too far. There was much talk, but little proof of scandalous practices on the eastern turf last year, but rather than have the talk continue the authorities intend to exert unusual vigilance during the campaign at hand.

"With the real prosperity for racing forecasted at Washington, the opening of the Aqueduct meeting a week from today will probably be signalized by a great crowd and marked enthusiasm. In line with the general improvement of everything in the turf world, the Aqueduct meeting will be of a higher quality than in the past. The Queens County Jockey Club has mapped out an extensive and liberal program of stakes and weight events, and the largest owners have displayed an inclination to race some of their horses on the Jamaica Bay course. A visit to Aqueduct one day last week found it in first class condition. Supt. Joe Reilly has already opened the track for horsemen who wish to stable their racers or work them there, and by the middle of the week all of the stable room will have been taken. Arrangements have been made, however, by which owners can use the stables of the Metropolitan Jockey Club's new track at Jamaica, which is a little more than a mile distant. In this way there will be no cause for complaint as to lack of stable room and when the racing at the Sullivan-McCarren track begins Aqueduct will return the compliment.

"So far few good two-year-olds have been shown at Benning. Race King, Petunia, Adel Trebla and a few others have shown fairly good class, but not what will be expected from the colts and fillies which will be introduced to the metropolitan public next month. Generally it is not until the spring meeting at Morris Park is well under way that the crack two-year-olds begin to appear. Turf sharps have been looking over the various youngsters at local tracks and at the stock farms in the south and west with the idea of securing a good line on those that may win championship laurels. So far, while a definite conclusion is impossible, the most promising two-year-olds seem to be in the stables of Messrs. Whitney, Madden, Paget, Belmont, Fleischmann, Schorr and Haggin. The most notable two-year-olds at local tracks are as follows:

"John E. Madden—Phaser, b. c. by Plaudit—Branch; Fun Maker, b. c. by Himyar—French Gray; Repeat, blk. c. by Sir Dixon—Repeat; Jollier, b. c. by Plaudit—Patrimony; Foghorn, ch. c. by Masetto—Wild Flower.

"W. C. Whitney—Phantom, b. c. by Meddler—Dissembler; Hypocrites, blk. c. by Lissak—Honora; High Lass, b. c. by Meddler—Forget; Bay colt, by Lissak—Aunt Betsey. "Sidney Paget—Water Pansy, br. c. by Watercress—Pansy; Grenade, b. c. by St. Gatien—Turmoil; Extralaw, b. c. by Bassettlaw—Extract; Valour, ch. c. by Bassettlaw—Victoria Cross; Hawk Fish, ch. c. by Goldfinch—Margerique; Emergency, b. c. by Bathampton—Crisis; Scholar, ch. c. by St. Gatien—School Girl; Bay colt, by Knight of the Thistle—Songstress.

"August Belmont—Jasper, b. c. by Hastings—Priceless; Red Harry, ch. c. by Henry of Navarre—Red Girl; Bay colt, by Sir Dixon—Merry Maiden.

"Julius Fleischmann—Chestnut colt, by St. Julien—Coquette; Chestnut colt, by Pontiac—Lizzie Cox; Brown colt, by Huron—Maud Ward; a half brother to Hugh Penny.

"The remarkable success of the three-year-old filly Mrs. Frank Foster at Benning is the talk of the town. Since the first day of the meeting she has won six races, three of them on Thursday, Friday and Saturday of last week. All of her races have been sprints, and she has won in each instance by a safe margin. In twenty-four races at New Orleans during the past winter season she finished in the money twenty-one times. Mrs. Frank Foster was sold as a yearling for $65 and did not begin to race until last fall. She is owned by Frank Foster and is named for his wife. The filly is blind in one eye. She will be turned out after the Benning meeting and will be raced later on at some of the Canadian tracks.

"The Executive Committee of the Saratoga Racing Association, consisting of W. C. Whitney, Andrew Miller, H. K. Knapp, R. T. Wilson, Jr., Perry Belmont, T. Hitchcock, Jr., F. R. Hitchcock, J. G. Heckscher and J. H. Bradford, will leave here next Thursday morning in Mr. Whitney's private car for Saratoga, where they will decide on the exact location of the new stables and the construction of the new field stand. They will also make arrangements for other improvements.

"G. H. Whitney has in his barn at Sheepshead Bay a two-year-old filly, Lida Liebe, by Farandole—Blessing, which is a full sister to Clarence H. Mackay's famous Banastar, which was bred by Mr. Whitney.

"E. E. Smathers, the owner of McChesney, has arrived in town. He ascribes McChesney's defeat in the Montgomery Handicap to overtraining, but he places no blame on 'Boots' Durnell. It is rumored that if the Jockey Club will lift the ban, Sam Hildreth will train McChesney for the big stakes for which he is engaged at Saratoga. Mr. Smathers says that he will not bring the horse east before that time.

"The metropolitan racecourses were frozen yesterday morning and consequently no work was done on the tracks before the sun had thawed out the frozen surface. Those that had the good fortune to be stabled at Gravesend and Brighton Beach made good use of the Ocean Parkway, which was in splendid condition. In the afternoon at the Gravesend course trainers Fred Berlew and E. L. Graves did some excellent work with many of their horses. In the Berlew string Royal and Remorse had a good spin. In the Graves stable Monograph led a trio of two-year-olds a nice gallop.

"Green B. Morris has arrived from the Pacific slope with his horses, and they all appear in good shape after their winter campaign there. Alexander Shields also arrived at Gravesend yesterday from Bound Brook, N. J., with fifteen head. Old Advance Guard, looking better than ever, was the hero of the hour. He was stripped so many times for his many admirers that eventually young Will Shields was obliged to put the padlock on the Iron Horse's stall. The reporter of The Sun asked owner Shields how many races the horse had run since he became his property. He said that he did not know, but that he could tell exactly how many times he had been in the money.

"'Since I owned him,' said Shields, 'he has won forty-two races. He was second in thirty-two and was third in eighteen, making a total of ninety-two races. Of course sometimes he was unplaced, which makes a racing record possible never before achieved by a horse carrying such weight as Advance Guard has carried. He is today without a blemish and with legs as clean as when was foaled.'
